Literature used in the training program:

Please describe which modules out of the list of possible subjects/modules will be covered (for explanation see 2018 ISST Minimum Certification Training Requirements Please use the numbers and language that are used in this list).*
Please be reminded that all trainers and supervisors must have advanced level certification in the program's specialty area and met the additional Trainer-Supervisor requirements.*
* Please be aware: Only 6 hours-of the didactic part of the curriculum may consist of didactics/lectures for an audience of more than 40 participants.*
For the dyadic/practice/role-plays part of the curriculum: The maximum is 20 participants if there is one trainer. For more participants use more trainers.*
 Literature used in this training program (there is no obligatory literature, but we would like to have a global idea of the literature that is used).*

How does your training program organize supervision for the participants?
Please explain (This is required for ISST certification training programs):

How does your training program help the participants to find independent raters for the tape rating? (Also Required) Independent raters are defined as those who do not know the applicant well, were not involved in giving him/her training or supervision. For advanced certification 2 different raters are required. In situations where this is not possible due to limited native speaker supervisors, institutional limits regarding tapes, etc contact the Training & Certification Coordinator to request an exception.

Application process for the program: Please attach a copy of the application form that you use for admission to your program and the criteria used for selection. The philosophy of ISST is that training be open to all who meet the certification requirements, however, since a limited number of spaces are available it can be a competitive process as long as the criteria for decisions are transparent.
